MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF
WESTMINSTER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dear saints,

Friday night lights are on in Texas, and that means football teams are learning plays, marching bands are practicing music, drill teams are getting their steps down, and cheerleaders are getting loud. Recently, WPC became the home base for the U9 Optimist Mustang cheerleaders. That got our staff thinking: what can the church learn from cheerleaders?

Be aggressive, B-E aggressive. Cheerleaders are not shy about letting you know how you should be cheering! Maybe you don't have to be aggressive, but as we head to Fall Kick-Off Sunday, prayerfully consider: who in your life needs an invitation to WPC? Step out, and take a chance in faith!

Practice makes perfect practice. You don't have to have faith all figured out to come join us in the practice of worship. We are figuring out how to be disciples together. We practice and practice our faith, never reaching perfection, but finding joy in the practice together.

Every squad member counts. Just as cheerleaders need someone to fly and someone to catch them, the church needs all kinds of kinds. We need long time members and faith seekers and babies and seniors and working professionals and and stay at home dads and yes, cheerleaders!

Support is key to making the pyramid work. Relationships with God and with each other are the centerpiece of WPC. Do you need support? Do you have support to offer? Sometimes we're the people bringing the casseroles; other times we're the ones receiving them.

When in doubt, use more glitter. Don't be afraid to sparkle. Don't hide your light under the bushel basket, but let it give light to the whole house. Bring your whole self - your hopes and your fears, your doubts and your worries, your questions and your answers. There's no part of you that has to stay hidden here.

See you on Fall Kick-Off Sunday, full of Spirit!
Grace and peace,

Kate

This fall, we'll wonder together: What's Your Superpower? We live in a world where it is easy to be overwhelmed by evil systems and actions. Yet, we have great God-given power. These four sessions explore the power granted to us through God in the Holy Spirit and how these gifts can translate to making a difference in our day-to-day lives. As it has been said, with great power comes great responsibility! Friends, visitors, and members; strong believers, doubters, and still-figuring-it-out; wherever you are, come join us on the journey of faith.

Earth Cares... at the World Cup

The world came to Arlington this summer as nine FIFA games were played at the stadium. We learned about diverse cultures, paraded with the orange bus from the Netherlands, learned to "row" a Norwegian Viking boat, and sang and danced with the Argentines. The great ones all played here: Ronaldo, Messi, Kane, and we fell in love with a large Norwegian named Haaland. But one of the most amazing and gratifying events came courtesy of the Japanese fans. Win or lose, after their team's matches, their fans pulled out blue bags and went through the stands cleaning up trash. Not just their own trash, but ANY trash, no matter who left it.

So there is an Earth care lesson to be learned here. To make our world a cleaner, safer, and a more attractive place we need to take responsibility, maybe not just for ourselves, but including for what others have left behind. Our WPC campus is beautiful and looks pristine on the outside. And there are a number of things we can do to make sure that carries over to the inside. If someone brings a water bottle, a coffee container, tissues, or wrappers from throat lozenges or gum, take those out at the end. Teach our kids that their trash is their problem no matter where they are---at WPC, a movie theater, school, or a "football" field. When cleaning up our own things, offer to take someone else's along also. On a larger scale, volunteer to participate in a city cleanup effort at a creek or other sponsored location.

All large endeavors began with small steps. By passing along an offered cleanup when at an event, others will take note and start to do the same thing. It is up to us to serve as examples in our world and make it better. Let's start at home and then branch out. The Japanese showed a way; let's follow.

WPC Financial Report

September! I'm looking for some cooler weather after the last several weeks of temps of over 100 degrees! With that cooler weather comes the end of the 3rd quarter - September 30th. After the end of September, I will be running 3rd quarter giving statements. We run these at the end of September so that you can see how much WPC shows that you have given. You can then compare it to your records to make sure we are on the same page. It's a perfect time to also compare it to the stub from your pledge card to see how you've done so far this year. If you're running behind on your pledge, because time or life got in the way, it's a little nudge. Remember, if you give cash and do not attach your name to the cash, it will not appear on a giving statement. In the coming weeks and months, the church's leadership team will start to think about the 2027 budget. We'll be basing a lot of the budget on 2026 numbers.

In last month's article I talked a bit about legacy giving. If you have ever thought about legacy giving, we'll have more information on what it looks like and where to start later this year. Watch the newsletter and announcements for more information.

WORLD COMMUNION
OFFERING

Sunday, October 4

What does the Lord require of you, but to do justice,

...to love kindness

and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

WORLD COMMUNION
OFFERING

In the 8th century before Christ, the humble prophet Micah was deeply in touch with the plight of the people. He envisioned a world where everyone would be free to live into the fullness of the life God intended. Yet the society and the culture in Micah's day did not match his visions of God's reign — there was no justice, kindness or humble living. The World Communion Offering is a re-envisioned way for Presbyterians to "love kindness" expressed in action, often involving mercy, faithfulness and steadfast commitment. Racial justice, gender justice, global witness, and ecumenical and interfaith engagement are the important causes supported by this Offering. The prophet Micah is clear: our love of God moves us to faithful action through justice, kindness and humble living. Participating in the Churchwide Special Offerings is one way Presbyterians show their love for God and help all God's children live into the fullness of Micah's prophecy.

In a world that often feels divided, this Offering helps us remember that we belong to one another, even to people we may never meet. We join siblings in Christ across the globe in God's mission of welcome, justice and hope. We step beyond the boundaries of our neighborhood and into the life of the worldwide church, learning to see God's image more clearly in one another. Let's be a global, connected church, shaped by God's endless love. Thank you for your support of these vital ministries with the World Communion Offering. If we all do a little, it adds up to a lot!

Wednesday, September 2 @ 2:00 PM on Zoom

This Wednesday we will discuss The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. This novel is about a woman named Nora who finds herself in a magical library where she can explore alternate lives based on different choices she could have made. She "tries on" different lives, including a rock star, a swimmer, and a glaciologist to see if any would be better than her current life. This is said to be a thought-provoking book about regret, choices, and finding fulfillment.

Our October read will be The Better Sister by Alafair Burke. Now a Prime video series, the book follows two estranged sisters forced to reunite after a shocking murder. Nicky married a lawyer named Adam, and they had a son, Ethan. Following their divorce, Nicky's sister married Adam. After Adam is murdered, Ethan becomes the prime suspect. The two sisters must work together to not only protect Ethan, but to also face their animosity for each other and deal with family secrets.

Upcoming selections include:

November—Canary Girls by Jennifer Chiaverinni

North Texas Presbyterian Pilgrimage #56 October 23-25 @ Camp Gilmont

During the three days of a Pilgrimage weekend, participants form a small Christian community. They worship, study and share with one another while gaining a personal awareness of their faith and the joys and responsibilities that are a result of that faith. The purpose of Pilgrimage is for the participants to discover a new and exciting relationship with Christ and to encourage them to take this new-found relationship back to their home. It challenges and equips each local church member for Christian action in their local church, in their home, in their place of work and in their community. Questions? Reach out to Harry Staley, Barbara & Charles Kennedy, Earlene Pike, or Pastor Kate. Scholarships are available. Check out a short video about Pilgrimage and register at ntpp.org.

We'll have a guided group workshop, self-led craft stations, and the option to bring a project from home to work on. The schedule is intentionally low-key, so you have the freedom to follow whatever sounds fun in the moment. There's plenty to enjoy beyond crafting including board games, puzzles, video games, and quiet spaces for reading, stretching, or just relaxing. Hoodies and sweatpants are encouraged. The cost of Cozy Craft Camp includes a Supply Fee so all specialty items needed for the crafts will be provided for you! Click here for more information & registration.

We are so grateful for these Eagle Scouts for their generous time and talents to make our church even better!
